

It is always exciting to share something new, and I have exciting news for you. If you have received our newsletter in the past, you can see this newsletter has a different format this month. That's because Women in Christian Leadership has been under construction. We have a new website and of course, our hope is that you will find the website user friendly. We would like any feedback that you might provide, so that we can make the site as enjoyable as possible.

What is even more exciting is that we are announcing the Women in Christian Leadership membership. There are three levels of membership.
