As the founder of Women in Business Networking (WiBN) in Dayton, Ohio, she broke new ground by bringing together women entrepreneurs, executives and other trailblazers in a non-competitive, supportive environment. Here, women forge relationships, learn from each other, and celebrate each other's successes. Women in Business Networking is now a program of the Better Business Bureau in Dayton.

*With her newest initiative, Women in Christian Leadership, Jeanne again applies her talent for recognizing leadership potential in women. Through the organization and its programs, she works to develop that potential through meaningful connections, thoughtful mentorship, and focused learning. ### When asked how she sees her personal calling, Debra responded:

I am called by God to teach the Word of God through Bible classes, conferences, retreats, workshops, and biblical counseling to faithful women that seek His Word for the answers to a faithful relationship with Him. This ministry is accomplished as the Holy Spirit inspires all of us through what God says God says. It is important in this day to ascertain the truth as it is clearly presented in the Bible. He has disciplined me to study the Word from the original text and to allow the Word to say what God meant it to say. I am surrendered to His Sovereignty and the Holiness of His precious Word for the building up of His children.
